

Disability Disclosure Form

Learning Support and Development Service

We want to ensure that your disability related support needs are identified as soon as possible. If you have evidence of a disability related need such as a report from an educational psychologist, a record of needs from previous education or a letter from your doctor, please provide a scanned copy by email or a hard copy by post, with this form.

The information you provide will be confidential to the Learning Support and Development Service.

We look forward to meeting you soon.
