

THE GLASGOW SCHOOL OF ART

COLLABORATIVE PROVISION: GUIDANCE ON CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

POLICY DETAILS:

Date of approval	March 2014
Approving body
Supersedes
Date of EIA
Date of next review	See departmental schedule
Author	Assistant Secretary to the Board
Responsible Executive Group area	Policy and Governance
Related policies and documents	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Collaborative Provision Policy • Collaborative Provision: The Student and Staff Experience • Collaborative Provision: Risk Assessment • Collaborative Provision: Due Diligence • Collaborative Provision: Formal Agreements • Collaborative Provision: Monitoring and Review • Collaborative Provision: International Articulation • Collaborative Provision: UK Articulation • Collaborative Provision: Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy
Benchmarking

GUIDANCE ON CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

It is assumed that staff or other persons representing participating institutions in establishing and administering collaborative arrangements do so as salaried employees or unremunerated agents and will not receive personal gain or benefit as a result of the arrangements. Should any persons involved have such a personal interest, this should be clearly declared prior to any arrangement being negotiated, so that institutions can determine whether there might be any conflict of interest.