

The following should be completed by the relevant parent or guardian to consent to the application and enrolment of a student who is under 18 years old on the date they enter The Glasgow School of Art. All fields in red are mandatory.

Student Name -

Programme of Study -

Entry Point -

Student Home Address -

I/We

give our consent to applying to and studying at The Glasgow School of Art.

I/We will make travel arrangements for this student to travel to Glasgow on time to begin their course and will provide/ arrange suitable accommodation for them within a reasonable proximity to The Glasgow School of Art.

Students entering the UK on a Student Visa

If the student is entering the UK on a Student Visa, I/we give our consent to this student living independently whilst in the UK. I/we accept that it is my/our responsibility to make the necessary arrangements for travel to the UK, reception on arrival in the UK, accommodation in the UK and care arrangements in the UK whilst they undertake their studies.

As this student is under the age of 18, I/we are aware that they must be accompanied by an adult to collect their Biometric Residence Permit (BRP). I/We will either travel to the UK with the student to collect the Biometric Residence Permit (BRP) from the designated Post Office or I/we understand that a member of University staff will have to accompany the student to the Post Office, however this may result in delays.
