- Demonstrate a critically informed reflection upon progress thus far and the possibilities for future development as an independent artist;
- Develop a significant artistic project for public presentation that demonstrates a deeper understanding of research and practice;
- Bring the results of critical re-appraisal and research to a point of synthesis and resolution within practice;
- Exhibit good practice and co-operation when working in professional contexts;
- Encourage you to demonstrate your knowledge and understanding of ethical good practice and your ethical responsibility in the public presentation of work;
- Enable you to develop your awareness of Health and Safety issues and environmental good practice as applicable to the production and presentation of practice;

12. Indicative Content:

At Stage 3 (the second year) of the programme, the emphasis shifts towards consolidating the developments arising from Stages 1 and 2, and towards the production of a body of work for exhibition and assessment. While there is still scope for development throughout this stage the emphasis is placed on the synthesis and resolution of practice. By the end of this stage – and the end of the two years’ programme – the issues arising from the critical review of creative practice should be resolved into a coherent and distinctive body of work that is formally strong, intellectually informed, and contextually aware.

It is worth noting, however, that the process of development fostered by the MFA programme in its entirety is not always linear and progressive. It is not uncommon for work to appear to take a ‘backward’ step at certain points during the programme, or for crises to arise. When undertaking a critical reassessment of all aspects of a practice (practical and theoretical) such apparent setbacks remain a constant possibility. However, one of the great advantages of a two years’ programme is that such glitches, should they occur, can always be fixed. In this final stage of the programme, then, the lessons learned from previous successes and failures finally come to a conclusion. The planning of work for the final exhibition, and the work involved in that exhibition provide the culmination of the period of study on the programme, and finally prepares you for life as an independent artist, artist-researcher or a career in other related professional career sequels.

The first part of Stage 3 also provides the opportunity for you to participate in the exchange programme. GSA has agreements with certain other international educational institutions whereby you may apply to study abroad for a period of time. Further details of the exchange programme are available from the GSA International Office.

13. Description of Summative Assessment Methods:

The assessment will consist of the presentation of work made over the duration of the course. The exhibition usually takes place at an external venue towards the end of the academic session. MFA staff members will assess the work presented in relation to the learning outcomes of the programme. The work presented should demonstrate the development that has taken place across the duration of the course, in this instance, Year 2. In accordance with the Code of Assessment a grade for the achievements in relation to Core Course III will be awarded.

The assessment results for all courses will be brought together at an internal parity meeting where the MFA assessment panel will agree a total grade.

At the internal exam board, the aggregated grade and the decision on a final proposed grade will be confirmed.

At the final Masters' Examination Board, which includes the external examiner, the final recommendation for the MFA award will be confirmed.

The MFA Degree Show will be held at the same venue where the presentation for final examination takes place and will be opened to the public after the examination process has been concluded.

The presentation of work will take place in the studio, final degree show (open to the public) and will be accompanied by a digital portfolio of work made over the duration of the course, and accompanying Critical Self Evaluation.  Normally all work submitted is subject to either double or multiple marking.	100%	Week 14 (Semester 2/ Year 2)

13.1 Please describe the Summative Assessment arrangements:

As detailed above.

14. Description of Formative Assessment Methods:

Twice during the course of the year you will contribute work to a critical feedback session (group critique)

During the second half of Stage 3 you write a reflective Critical Evaluation Report (Progress Review) on your progress to date in relation to Core Courses III and IV, referring to the Learning Outcomes at this stage and their progress so far. Upon reviewing the Progress Review MFA staff feedback via a tutorial and a written response to your report, outlining those areas in which you may need to improve. If you wish to discuss the feedback, you may request a meeting with a member of the MFA staff team.

Engagement with formative assessment is a mandatory requirement.
